Relevant work experience and how it relates to Toastmasters and your role as a District leader:

I have worked for many non profit organizations as a volunteer over the years and I am a proud home maker by choice. Since I joined the toastmasters in 2015 , I felt I have found my place as Toastmaster is such an amazing platform where you learn and have the opputunity to serve . I have served in various leadership roles (mentioned above). In addition to this I am proud to say I am a mentor to many clubs , and various toastmasters . I had the opputunity to work in most of the committees including DTAC as an admin manager. presntly, I am learning a lot as the PQD for division E under the eminent leadership of MK Sabeena ,DTM.

What experience do you have in strategic planning?

Developing good procedures plans, is a main asset of any leader. Steps have to be defined with clarity so that implementation is easy and goals are achieved. Since I have taken many leadership positions in toastmasters this is main aspect that I found I am good at. be it managing the position of a chief coordinator for Sampradaya empowerment drive or area director, I have always been very clear with writing down the working steps and developing procedures so that my work becomes easy. I have successfully conducted many workshops and member empowerment programs.

What experience do you have in the area of finance?

There are many lessons learnt. This question brought on a smile because of the immense learning I have since three years . wow what a journey it has been. I am going to enlist few teachings ...
Team work always wins, empowerment of a member learning experience is the priority, during one discussion with our district PQD, I learnt the value of opening new clubs and how it enriches the new members . I have the privilege to understand to create leaders as your successors is also very important part of being a leader. the value of planning and implementing to achieve the targets is the correct way.
Empathy and Humility is a rich resource which propels for a greater social cause.
Networking and friends make you a good leader so protect them at all costs.
Of course, I am looking forward for more learning experience in my future endeavors.

What experience do you have in developing procedures?

Toastmasters fraternity has made me what I am today, a good service leader. Service and giving back are two pillars of this amazing Dist 116 and to be part of that team of achievers is an honor and a privilege. I have learnt a lot over the years and being a district leader will definitely be a place where I can do the most as a leader and also grow as a wholesome individual. Also, being a District leader requires time and effort and I believe I have the capability to do so. Words and actions define every individual, and I believe I have the capability to empower any individual with words and make my actions accountable so I feel I am best candidate for a district role .

In your opinion, what are the District mission's major objectives and how would you work to achieve them?

" We build new clubs and support all clubs in achieving excellence. "

These words have a profound effect on me as an individual. New clubs are the most important tools to empower an individual who is looking to learn a platform for public speaking and personal growth. I have seen a substantial amount of people who have grown into powerful individuals, thanks to toastmasters. As a leader it ' s very important to support clubs to become distinguished so that the members feel they are part of something good. here comes the individual member empowerment which is the goal and target of our wonderful district. Having a strategic plan and a good team will propel me to achieve these goal. I plan to be on the forefront and work towards the success of Dist 116

Additional information about yourself:

I am a happy homemaker by choice. I have been part of many voluntary organizations and couple of NGO ' s in India. I also have worked with kids intensely and I found my happy corner with them. Since I joined toastmasters, I have immensely enjoyed networking and found wonderful group of people who work towards a just cause and its been a beautiful journey to date. I have a lot to give to this fraternity and I am sure I will get the opportunity to work and smile ate end of the day.
